

APPLY NOW

for the

BEWELL MIAMI SOUTH DADE TEEN WELLNESS FELLOWSHIP

Are you passionate about teen mental health and wellness and interested in being a part of a select group of like-minded teens? The Greater Miami Jewish Federation Youth Mental Health Initiative, BeWell Miami, invites rising 10th-12th graders to apply for the inaugural South Dade Jewish Community Cohort of the Teen Wellness Fellowship.

- » Fellowship runs August 2025-May 2026 (exact dates will be provided upon acceptance into the program)
- » Monthly meetings for 1.5-2-hour sessions, both in-person in South Dade and via Zoom
- » Learn from BeWell Miami Director, Shoshana Farbman, LCSW, and other teen mental health experts in Jewish Miami
- » Fellows will be trained in nationally-recognized Teen Mental Health First Aid and receive a certificate of completion
- » Participants will work together to design a project aimed at promoting mental health awareness and positive mental health in the South Dade Jewish Community

Cost to participate: $150

Application deadline: Friday, May 30

Scan code to apply now

Application and recommendation forms are required for completion of the application. Upon submission of the application, a recommendation form will be sent to your reference. Please follow up with them to ensure they have completed it on your behalf. When both parts of the application are completed, you will be contacted to schedule a Zoom interview.

For more information or questions, please reach out to Shoshana Farbman, BeWell Miami Director, at sfarbman@gmjf.org or 786.866.8413.